

Workshop: Representations of and in the Japanese diaspora

October 23, 2015

14.00-18.00

Location: Campus of the University of Vienna, Department of East Asian Studies / Japanese Studies, Spitalgasse 2, Hof 2; Entrance 2.4; JAP 2 (ground floor)

Organization by
Wolfram MANZENREITER

Speakers:

Peter BERNARDI, “From museum to memorial and other places of remembrance: (Re)Presenting memories of Japanese immigration in Brazil” (Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf/Germany)

Wolfram MANZENREITER, “Staying Japanese in multi-ethnic countries. Two stories from Paraguay and Hawai’i” (University of Vienna/Austria)

Yvonne SIEMANN, “Okinawan-Bolivian identity in Santa Cruz de la Sierra” (University of Luzern/Switzerland)

Ayumi TAKENAKA, “Nikkei cuisine: Representation and strategies of Japanese descendants in Peru” (Aston University/UK)

Due to space constraints we may kindly ask you to inform us in advance about your attendance by sending a short e-mail to sebastian.polak-rottmann@univie.ac.at until October 20.

Attendance will be free. Thank you!